

History home work for November - December

Instruction sheet for the Battle of Hastings essay

Essay question:

Why did William win the Battle of Hastings?

Deadline

Your teacher will tell you exactly when this essay is due in, but it will be around the start of December.

Tips to help you answer this question

1. You will have been given time in your History lessons to research and plan your essay. You now need to write the essay up in neat.
2. If you choose, you can write your essay on a computer and print it out to hand in.
3. You will find resources on this site to help you. Many of these you will recognise from your lessons.
4. There is a mark scheme for you to follow to help you get the best mark possible.
5. There is a fact sheet about the Battle of Hastings
6. There are support sheets to help you to structure your work if you are struggling. Remember to try to write the essay without using one of our plans if possible, as this will show us what you are capable of doing on your own.
7. If you decide to use one of the support sheets, it will tell you what the maximum level is that you can get by using it.
8. Remember you get marks for being able to set out your work in essay format, as well as for the facts that you include.