

Chronology Revision Tasks

You will be tested on your understanding of chronology and key words within the first half term. You can use the following revision tasks to help you to revise.

There are many different words that we use to describe the past. It is important that we understand these words if we are to become good historians.

🕒 Match up each word correct definition, you can copy the sentences on to paper in the correct order if you wish.

HEADS	TAILS
Century	These Latin words mean after the birth of Christ.
	Anno Domini
B.C.	One thousand years
Decade	Separate division of time
A.D	Before Christ
Millennium	One hundred years
Periods	Every ten years

🕒 Now in the back of your book or on a sheet of paper write a sentence for each of the about words.

For example:

A century means

Which century is a year in?

Finding out which year is in which century can be a tricky business. The easiest way to decide is to cover the last two numbers up and add one.

For example: 1459 is in the Fifteenth Century - 14 + 1 = 15th century or 908 is in the 10th century - 9 + 1 = 10th century

🕒 in the back of your books or on a separate sheet of paper write down which century the following years are in:

1. 866 AD
2. 1066
3. 1170
4. 1485
5. 1588
6. 1642
7. 1704
8. 1837
9. 1914
10. 2000

Complete the missing words

🕒 Remember when people refer to a decade in time they don't say the say the second decade they say the 20's.

My name is _____. I was born in the _____ Century. My date of birth is _____ (B.C/AD). In my parents lifetime we have entered a new _____ and now live in the _____ century. They celebrated the millennium by Now complete the word search. Make sure that you know what all the words mean. You can use a dictionary to help you.