

Geography: Explaining the Impacts of Inequality

Assessment: “Inequality has severe impacts for people’s everyday lives”. Explain what is meant by this statement.

	REASONED	CLEAR	DETAILED
Explanation Skills	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Give valid reasons for things</li> <li>2. Use some connectives to develop sentences</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>3. Start to use evidence to make the explanation clearer</li> <li>4. Use connectives throughout to show how one thing links to another</li> <li>5. Start to compare things to support the explanation</li> <li>6. Use some key words</li> </ol>	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>7. Use specific case study evidence to support the explanation</li> <li>8. Or Starts to analyse data/facts to support the explanation</li> <li>9. Use connectives to make cause and effect clear</li> <li>10. There is a logical structure/order to the answer</li> <li>11. Impacts are categorised into either long term and short term or social, economic and environmental</li> <li>12. Use geographical key words</li> </ol>

Key Words: Inequality, absolute poverty, squatter settlements, sanitation, healthcare, education